Fees, Accounts and Payment Terms

Fees. As consideration for the Services, You agree to pay SwervePay the applicable service(s) fees set forth in an Exhibit A, or as otherwise provided by SwervePay in each Customer Agreement in force and effect, at the time of Your selection (and as it may be amended from time to time), or, if applicable, upon receipt of Your invoice from SwervePay. Should Customer wish to add Services, such addition shall be made by an additional Exhibit A either by written agreement signed by SwervePay and Customer or by e-mail from one party to the other acknowledged by reply e-mail. Fixed monthly fees are charged monthly in advance. Charges that are based on usage, such as text messages or transaction fees, are billed as soon as practicable following the end of the month. No objection to charges will be valid if not provided by notice to SwervePay within thirty (30) days of the date of the applicable invoice or charge by SwervePay. SwervePay will investigate such charges, which shall remain due and payable (and not subject to set off or deduction) until such point in time, if any, that SwervePay advises Customer to the contrary. Customer agrees to an automatic debit to ACH to settle billings; there shall be no separate invoice sent. SwervePay shall have the right from time to time to increase the prices called for on Exhibit A on thirty (30) days' prior notice to Customer (either by e-mail or written notice), which shall be effective should Customer not object to such price increase within such thirty (30) day period; should customer object to such price increase on a timely basis, then at SwervePay's option, to be delivered in writing or by e-mail, such price increase shall be rescinded retroactive the original notification, subject to SwervePay's right to terminate this Agreement as set forth below.

Payments; Refunds; Pre-Payments. You are solely responsible for the credit card or Direct Debit ("Payment Method") account information You provide to SwervePay and must promptly inform SwervePay of any changes thereto (e.g., change of expiration date or account number). Changes should be communicated to SwervePay by entering the updated information through the SwervePay tools or contacting SwervePay customer support. All payments shall be made in U.S. dollars. All fees are non-refundable unless otherwise explicitly stated in this Agreement. If we do issue a refund, we will do so via the Payment Method used by You to pay for the Services being refunded. For additional services or add-on services, Customer shall either prepay SwervePay's then-current annual prepaid fees, if available, or pay the then-current monthly fees for such services, in accordance with the applicable Customer Agreement. If Customer uses SwervePay add-on services that are subject to additional standard fees that are not prepaid at enrollment, then SwervePay shall either immediately charge Customer's credit card or debit Customer's DDR account, as applicable, for SwervePay's then-current fees for such services or invoice Customer for such additional standard fees, and Customer shall pay such invoice immediately.

Taxes. Customer is solely responsible for collecting, reporting and remitting any taxes required to be collected, paid or withheld in connection with the Services ("Taxes"). SwervePay is not responsible to determine whether or not Taxes apply, or calculate, collect, report, or remit any Taxes to any tax authority arising from any transaction. If in a given calendar year You receive (i) more than $20,000 in gross amount of payments and (ii) more than 200 payments, Vendor or its Vendor processor(s) is authorized to report annually to the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS"), as required by law, Your name, address, Tax Identification Number (such as a Social Security Number (SSN), or Employer Identification Number (EIN)), the total dollar amount of the payments You receive in a calendar year, and the total dollar amount of the payments You receive for each month in a calendar year. You agree to pay all Taxes (including value added, sales and other taxes (other than taxes based on SwervePay's income)) related to the Services or payments made by You hereunder. All payments due to SwervePay shall be made without any deduction or withholding on account of any tax, duty, charge or penalty, except as required by law, in which case, the sum payable by a party in respect of which such deduction or withholding is to be made shall be increased to the extent necessary to ensure that, after making such deduction or withholding, SwervePay receives and retains (free from any liability in respect thereof) a net sum equal to the sum it would have received but for such deduction or withholding being required. Set up fees, if any, will become payable on the applicable effective date for the applicable SwervePay Services. All sums due and payable that remain unpaid after any applicable cure period herein will accrue interest as a late charge of 1.5% per month or the maximum amount allowed by law, whichever is less (the "Agreement Interest Rate"). Customer hereby authorizes us to charge Customer's Payment Method for the fees due for the Services, and Customer shall provide to SwervePay proper authorization for purposes of allowing SwervePay to debit the applicable Customer account to collect fees due under these TOS and each Customer Agreement. All fees owed by Customer to third-parties (for example, Financial Institutions, Financial Processors and merchant account providers), are Customer's sole responsibility and are not covered by the Services.

Overcharge Fee. Excluding merchant services, in the event You exceed the Transaction limit permitted for the applicable Services as provided in any Customer Agreement ("Excess Transaction") in any month, Customer may be charged a monthly transaction fee ("Monthly Overcharge Fee") to be determined by multiplying each Excess Transaction processed in that month by the corresponding Service's Transaction Fee. The Monthly Excess Transaction Fee shall be invoiced or debited in accordance with the terms for Fees above.

Chargebacks. These terms apply to Chargebacks for merchant services:

1. The amount of a transaction may be reversed or charged back to Your Customer Account (each a "Chargeback") for reasons, including, but not limited to, any one of the following: (i) an invalid Card account is submitted by You; (ii) neither the Cardholder nor a person authorized by the Cardholder received the goods or services requested; (iii) the Cardholder disputes the quality of the goods or services received; (iv) the Cardholder never received a credit for a returned item or a cancelled order; (v) the Cardholder was charged incorrectly; (vi) the authorization code is invalid; (vii) the Card was expired or not effective; (viii) the transaction is disputed; (ix) the transaction is reversed by the Card Issuer, our Processor, or a financial institution for any reason; or (x) the transaction was not authorized.
2. For any transaction that results in a Chargeback, we may withhold or cause to be withheld the Chargeback amount in the Reserve Account. You may be subject to a chargeback on sales for a minimum period of one hundred eighty (180) days from the date the sale was entered into the processing system. We may deduct the amount of any Chargeback and any associated fees, fines, or penalties assessed by each applicable Vendor Processor from Your Customer Account, Your Reserve Account, if any, any proceeds due to You, or Your bank account. If You have pending Chargebacks or we reasonably believe that a Chargeback is likely, we may withhold or delay payments from Your Customer Account for the later of: (i) two hundred seventy (270) days following the Termination Date; (ii) one hundred eighty (180) days from Your last Chargeback; or (iii) thirty (30) days following Your delivery of written notification disputing the Chargeback in question and the basis therefor with appropriate documentation in accordance herewith. You agree to respond to all Chargebacks promptly. If we are unable to recover funds related to a Chargeback for which You are liable, You will pay us the full amount of the Chargeback immediately upon demand together with interest computed at the Agreement Interest Rate on any unpaid Chargeback amounts You owe to us from time to time. You agree to pay all costs and expenses, including without limitation attorneys' fees and other legal expenses, incurred by or on behalf of SwervePay related to any efforts to collect any Customer Account deficit balances (including, but not limited to, Chargeback amounts) which remain unpaid by for more than thirty (30) days.

1. Deposit of Funds. Upon validation of Your Customer Account, Vendor or Vendor's Processor(s) will deposit to Your Customer Account the amounts actually received by us for completed transactions submitted through the Services at the end of every business day unless otherwise agreed in Your Customer Agreement. Payouts to Your bank account will normally register within two (2) to three (3) business days. Each Transaction will be considered complete when SwervePay has received the funds and when such funds have been accepted by the designated bank or financial institution. We shall have the right to deduct from Your Sub-Customer Account: (i) following the end of each month during the term of this Agreement any Fees owing from You to us or any of our Processors; and (ii) immediately at any time, any Chargebacks, penalties or other Fees owing from You to us or any of our Processors. Should we need to conduct an investigation or resolve any dispute related to Your Sub-Customer Account (including but not limited to issues around possible prohibited transactions or other breaches of these TOS or any Customer Agreement, or applicable SwervePay, Processor or Card Issuer Rules), we may defer payout or restrict access to Your funds for as long as we deem necessary. We also may defer payout or restrict access to Your funds as required by law or court order, or if otherwise requested by law enforcement or governmental entity.
2. Customer Account Activity. You are responsible for monitoring Your transactions and ensuring that our payments to You are correct. You agree to contact us immediately if You discover or become aware of an error or an unauthorized transaction on Your Customer Account. You must notify us of any errors in payments made to You within thirty (30) days of the error or unauthorized transaction. Your failure to notify us of any such errors within the applicable thirty (30)-day period will constitute a waiver of any right or claim to amounts owed to You. Further, You are responsible for reconciling all transactions with Your Customer Account and keeping permanent records of such transactions.
3. Reserve Accounts. For the purpose of providing a source of funds to pay damages which SwervePay or our Processors may potentially suffer in connection with providing You Services, and to pay Fees, fines, Chargebacks or other amounts You may owe or be assessed by any processor, a separate reserve account (the "Reserve Account") may be established from time to time by You, us or any of our Processors to secure Your current and/or future potential obligations as reasonably determined us or our Processor. The Reserve Account will be in an amount as reasonably determined to protect the present or future interests and may be raised, reduced or removed at any time, in our or our Processor's sole discretion. If there are not sufficient funds in Your Reserve Account, You grant us the right of recoupment and set-off and may fund the Reserve Account from any funding source associated with Your Customer Account, including but not limited to any funds due to You for the Services or under any Customer Agreement or available in Your bank account. If, in our opinion, the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 enables us to improve our security interest over the Reserve Account, You agree to do all things necessary, including obtaining the appropriate authorizations and executing any document to effect such improvement.

Indemnifications

Mutual Indemnifications. Either party to this Agreement (You, on the one hand, and SwervePay, on the other hand) will defend, indemnify, save and hold harmless the other party and the officers, directors, agents, Affiliates, distributors, franchisees and employees of the other party from any and all third-party claims, demands, liabilities, costs or expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, resulting from the indemnifying party's material breach of any duty, representation or warranty of any Customer Agreement or these TOS, as amended. An "Indemnified Party" party's right to indemnification is conditioned upon the following: prompt written notice to the party obligated to provide indemnification ("Indemnifying Party") of any claim, action or demand for which indemnity is sought; control of the investigation, preparation, defense and settlement thereof by the Indemnifying Party; and such reasonable cooperation by the indemnified part, at the Indemnifying Party's request and expense, in the defense of the claim. The Indemnifying Party shall not, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, settle, compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment that makes any admissions in the Indemnified Party's name or imposes any liability upon the Indemnified Party.

Customer agrees not to use the Services in violation of any local, state or Federal laws, rules or regulations, or orders, including, but not limited to the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991 (“TCPA”) and its related July 10, 2015 Omnibus Ruling, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”) and its related Rules and Regulations, and agrees to indemnify, defend and hold SwervePay and any Affiliated Entity harmless from and against all Losses (defined below) that are incurred, suffered or paid, directly or indirectly, by any of them in connection with, arising out of or resulting from any claim alleging improper or illegal use of any of the Services provided to Customer or any of Customer’s clients by SwervePay or any Affiliated Entity, including but not limited to any claims arising from following the direction of Customer for communications to its clients as to frequency of sending messages by any medium, including but not limited to text, e-mail, facsimile or paper regarding any matter, including but not limited to past due sums, deposits for anticipated procedures, estimates of cost of procedures, appointment reminders, payment receipts or other communications. For purposes of this Section, indemnification of SwervePay and any Affiliated Entity includes, but is not limited to payment by Customer of any judgment, settlement, claim, penalties and costs, interest, reasonable attorneys’ fees and cost of defense, if SwervePay or any Affiliated Entity is named as a party to any action or suit related to delivery of communications to a Customer client or otherwise subject to this indemnification. In such an event, SwervePay and any Affiliated Entity shall have the option at any time of either being defended by Customer’s counsel or providing their own defense to the action (subject to regular monthly reimbursement from Customer for costs and fees incurred, regardless of the outcome of such action). For purposes of this Section: (i) “Losses” means any and all losses, liabilities, damages, penalties, obligations, awards, fines, deficiencies, demands, interest, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees, consultants’ fees and other professional fees and disbursements); and (ii) “Affiliated Entity” shall mean any “affiliate” of SwervePay (as such term is construed under Rule 405 promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933), as well as, without limitation, any independent contractor, business partner, solution extender, or service provider under contract with SwervePay that assists SwervePay in delivering any of the Services provided by SwervePay or any Affiliated Entity to Customer.

Term and Termination

Term; Renewal. These TOS and each applicable Customer Agreement shall become effective upon the later of (i) the date Customer accepts these TOS via Customer Agreement (the “Effective Date”), or (ii) the date You use any of the Services, if different; and will continue for the period indicated on an Exhibit A (“Initial Term”), unless terminated earlier or suspended according to the provisions of these TOS and the applicable Customer Agreement(s). Each Customer Agreement will thereafter automatically renew for successive twelve (12) month terms, unless either party gives the other party written or electronic notice, in accordance with the terms herein, of its intention not to renew the applicable Customer Agreement, at least thirty (30) days prior to the end of the then-current term or renewal term, unless termination is by SwervePay. Any renewal of Your Services is subject to our then-current terms and conditions, successful completion of any applicable authentication procedure, if any, and payment of all applicable Fees owing to us at the time of renewal. Additional payment terms may apply to the SwervePay Services You purchase, as set forth herein and in the applicable Schedules to this Agreement or any applicable Customer Agreement.

Suspension and Termination. Either party hereto may, at its option, and without notice, terminate the Services, effective immediately, should the other party hereto (i) admit in writing its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due; (ii) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; (iii) institute proceedings to be adjudicated a voluntary bankrupt, or consent to the filing of a petition of bankruptcy against it; (iv) be adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction as being bankrupt or insolvent; (v) seek reorganization under any bankruptcy act, or consent to the filing of a petition seeking such reorganization; or (vi) have a decree entered against it by a court of competent jurisdiction appointing a receiver liquidate, trustee, or assignee in bankruptcy or in insolvency covering all or substantially all of such party's property or providing for the liquidation of such party's property or business affairs.

1. By Customer. Unless otherwise provided in a Customer Agreement, You may terminate the Services and any Customer Agreement upon prior thirty (30) days' written notice to SwervePay by notifying SwervePay's customer support electronically or in writing and following the instructions for cancellation prior to the end of the initial annual period or any annual renewal period. Subject to the above, SwervePay shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cancel the Services within seven (7) business days following such written notice from Customer. Customer shall be responsible for the payment of all fees due and payable through the effective date of termination. Termination requests for non-SwervePay, third-party services may not be made through SwervePay. Customer must instead contact such third-parties directly to cancel such services.
2. By SwervePay. Notwithstanding the foregoing, SwervePay may suspend Customer's access to the Services or terminate this Agreement as follows:

- Following ten (10) days' prior electronic or written notice (such as an overdue invoice) if (a) Customer breaches the Agreement, (b) perpetrates fraud, (c) causes or fails to fix a security breach relating to the Services, (d) fails to comply with SwervePay's best practices requirements for security management or to respond to an inquiry from SwervePay, concerning the accuracy or completeness of the information Customer is required to provide pursuant to this Agreement, (e) if SwervePay reasonably suspects fraudulent activity on Customer's payment services account, (if such breach is not cured within such ten (10)-day period), (f) in the event that certain third-party licenses or access to third-party components of the Services are terminated, or (g) non-payment of invoice; or
- Immediately, without prior notice, if we reasonably believe: (a) Your breach compromises the security of the Services in any material fashion, (b) fraudulent Transactions are occurring on Your account, (c) Customer's financial processor or Financial Institution with which Customer has a merchant account requires such termination or suspension or where continued breach of its Rules or contractual terms creates a risk of termination of such merchant account or of such entity doing business with SwervePay; or (d) You or a Transaction violates our Acceptable Use Policy or Rules.

Termination Date. The date upon which termination is effective shall be the “Termination Date.”

Effect of Termination.

1. Cessation. SwervePay will cease providing the Services and cease charging Your Payment Method, if applicable, for any monthly, annual or bi-annual Service fees as of the expiration of the annual, bi-annual or monthly billing cycle in which the termination is effective. If termination is due to Your default hereunder, You shall bear all costs of such termination, including any reasonable costs SwervePay incurs in closing Your account and applicable termination Fees. You agree to pay any and all costs incurred by SwervePay in enforcing Your compliance with this Section. Upon termination, Your rights to use the Services, and any other rights granted hereunder, shall immediately cease, and You shall destroy any copy of the materials licensed to You hereunder and referenced herein except for such copies that are in electronic format and cannot be readily destroyed without undue cost or effort, which copies may be retained only for archival purposes and not for commercial use. Each party will be released from all obligations and liabilities to the other occurring or arising after the date of such termination, except that any termination of this Agreement will not relieve SwervePay or Customer from any liability or obligations arising prior to the Termination Date, which shall survive any termination of this Agreement. To the extent permitted by applicable law, You agree that upon termination for any reason, we may delete all information relating to Your use of the Service. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Your obligations to pay all fees due through the Termination Date and terms relating to covenants, indemnity, warranties or terms which by their nature are required to survive contract termination will survive any termination of this Agreement.
2. Bundled Services. In addition to the terms set forth above, if You purchase Services which are sold together as part of a “bundled” package of services, any termination relating to such bundle will terminate all SwervePay Services included in such bundle. In such cases we may, in our sole discretion and subject to Your agreeing to be bound by the applicable agreement(s) and to pay the applicable fees, allow You to convert certain Services included in the bundled services to stand-alone Services. Notwithstanding the above, termination of the Services will terminate any add-on services.
3. Reinstatement of Services. If Services are suspended or terminated by SwervePay due to lack of payment by Customer, reinstatement of Services shall be subject to Customer paying SwervePay (i) new set-up fees, at SwervePay’s then-current rates; and (ii) as applicable, all past due annual or monthly fees and Transaction Fees and all interest thereon at the Agreement Interest Rate (unless waived by SwervePay).
4. Data Portability. After the Termination Date, SwervePay, upon written request from You, may, at its option and only if practicable, provide Your new acquiring bank or payment service provider (“Data Recipient”), as applicable, with any available credit card information relating to Your Customers, subject to the following conditions: (i) You must provide us with proof that the Data Recipient is in compliance with the PCI-DSS requirements (level 1 PCI compliant) by giving us a certificate or report on compliance with the Association PCI-DSS requirements from a qualified provider and any other information reasonably requested by us; (ii) the transfer of such information is compliant with the latest version of the PCI-DSS requirements; and (iii) the transfer of such information is allowed under the applicable Card Issuer Rules, and any applicable laws, rules or regulations. You shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless SwervePay from and against any lawsuit, claim, liability, loss, penalty or other expense (including attorney's fees) we suffer or incur arising out of or in connection with the transfer of any data to a Data Recipient.

Confidentiality

1. Confidential Information. "Confidential Information" means any confidential, trade secret or proprietary information (which may be business, financial or technical information) disclosed by one party to the other under this Agreement that is marked confidential or if disclosed orally designated as confidential at the time of disclosure or that should be reasonably understood to be confidential. All source code and the terms of any Customer Agreement will be considered Confidential Information.
2. Confidentiality Obligations. Each party (i) shall not disclose to any third-party or use any Confidential Information disclosed to it by the other except as expressly permitted by these TOS or a Customer Agreement and for purposes of performing the Services, and (ii) shall take reasonable measures to maintain the confidentiality of all Confidential Information of the other party in its possession or control, which shall in no event be less than the measures it uses to maintain the confidentiality of its own proprietary information or Confidential Information of similar importance. Each party further agrees to use the other party's Confidential Information only for the purpose of its performance of the Services. In addition, the receiving party shall not reverse engineer, disassemble or decompile any prototypes, software or other intangible objects which embody Confidential Information, and which are provided to the receiving party hereunder.
3. Limitation of Confidentiality. The confidentiality obligations set forth in this Section ("Confidentiality Obligations") above do not apply to information that (i) is in or enters the public domain without breach of this Agreement, (ii) the receiving party lawfully receives from a third-party without restriction on disclosure and without breach of a nondisclosure obligation, (iii) the receiving party knew prior to receiving such information from the disclosing party or develops independently without access or reference to the Confidential Information, (iv) is disclosed with the written approval of the disclosing party, or (v) is disclosed five (5) years from the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement.
4. Exceptions to Confidentiality. Notwithstanding the Confidentiality Obligations set forth above, each party may disclose Confidential Information of the other party (i) to the extent required by a court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental authority or otherwise as required by law but only after alerting the other party of such disclosure requirement and, prior to any such disclosure, allowing (where practicable to do so) the other party a reasonable period of time within which to seek a protective order against the proposed disclosure, or (ii) on a “need-to-know” basis under an obligation of confidentiality substantially similar in all material respects to the Confidentiality Obligations to its legal counsel, accountants, contractors, consultants, banks and other current or potential financing sources (including investors).

Miscellaneous

1. Third-Party Services. You may be made aware of services, products, offers and promotions provided by third-parties, and not by SwervePay (“Third-Party Services”). If You elect to use Third-Party Services, You are solely responsible for reviewing and understanding the terms and conditions as well as any fees, if any, governing any Third-Party Services. You authorize us to use and disclose Your contact information, including name and address, for the purpose of making the Third-Party Services You select available to You. You agree that the third-party is solely responsible for the performance of the Third-Party Services.
2. Force Majeure. Neither party shall be deemed in default hereunder, nor shall it hold the other party responsible for, any cessation, interruption or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder, except for Customer’s payment obligations hereunder, due to earthquake, flood, fire, storm, natural disaster, act of God, war, terrorism, armed conflict, labor strike, lockout, or boycott, provided that the party relying upon this Section shall give the other party written notice thereof promptly and, in any event, within five (5) days of discovery thereof, and (ii) shall take all steps reasonably necessary under the circumstances to mitigate the effects of the force majeure event upon which such notice is based; provided, however, that in the event a force majeure event described in this Section extends for a period in excess of thirty (30) days in the aggregate, either party may immediately terminate the Agreement.
3. Entire Agreement and Modification. Except for a valid Customer Agreement attached hereto or any other written agreement signed by both of us, the terms in this Agreement constitute the entire agreement between SwervePay and You regarding its subject matter and its terms supersede any prior or simultaneous agreement, terms, negotiations, whether written or oral, or whether established by custom, practice, policy or precedent, between the parties hereto. Except as otherwise provided for herein, any waiver, modification, or amendment of any provision of this Agreement will be effective only if in writing and signed by the parties herein. You acknowledge and agree that in the event a purchase order (“PO”) contains additional terms, provisions or language (“PO Terms”), those PO Terms shall be null and void unless accepted in writing by SwervePay pursuant to a Customer Agreement.
4. Severability. In the event that any provision of these TOS or a Customer Agreement is unenforceable or invalid such unenforceability or invalidity will not render this Agreement unenforceable or invalid as a whole, and in such event, such provision will be changed and interpreted so as to best accomplish the objectives of such unenforceable or invalid provision within the limits of applicable law or applicable court decisions.

5. No Assignment. Customer may not assign any rights or obligations under these TOS, to the Services, or any Customer Agreement without the prior written consent of SwervePay. SwervePay may assign its rights, obligations or duties regarding the Services, these TOS or any Customer Agreement upon prior written notice to You.
6. Governing Law and Jurisdiction. These TOS, the Services and each Customer Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois, without reference to its conflicts of laws principles. Each party consents to the exclusive venue and jurisdiction of the competent state and/or federal courts in Chicago, Illinois, for any dispute arising out of or related to this Agreement, with venue to be laid in the appropriate courthouse in Chicago, Illinois. The parties acknowledge and agree that this Agreement is made and performed in Chicago, Illinois. THE PARTIES HEREBY WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO JURY TRIAL WITH RESPECT TO ANY ACTION BROUGHT IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT. For avoidance of doubt, the application of the United Nations Convention of Contracts for the International Sale of Goods is expressly excluded.
7. Export Restrictions. You acknowledge and agree that You shall not import, export, or re-export directly or indirectly, any commodity, including Your products incorporating or using any SwervePay products or Services in violation of the laws and regulations of any applicable jurisdiction. The Services are subject to the U.S. export controls regulations administered by the U.S. Dept. of Commerce (15 CFR, Chapter VII). You will not export or re-export the Services, or portion thereof, directly or indirectly, in violation the U.S. export administration laws and regulations to any country or end user, or to any end user who You know or have reason to know will utilize them in the design, development or production of nuclear, chemical or biological weapons.
8. Notices. Except as otherwise expressly stated in this Agreement, all notices to SwervePay shall be in writing and delivered, via courier, commercial carrier or certified or registered mail (in each case with delivery confirmation), to SwervePay at its official corporate address, or via email (with proof of transmission) to the authorized representative identified in the applicable Customer Agreement. All notices to You shall be delivered to Your mailing address or e-mail address as provided by You in Your account information, as updated by You pursuant these TOS. Unless You choose to opt-out of receiving marketing notices, You authorize SwervePay to notify You as our customer, via commercial e-mails, telephone calls and other means of communication, of information that we deem is of potential interest to You, including without limitation communications describing upgrades, new products and services or other information pertaining to the Services or other SwervePay offerings relating to Internet security or to payment services. Notwithstanding the above, You shall not have the right to opt-out of service or support notices relating to the Services, including without limitation, notices of service modifications, security, performance issues or technical difficulties.
9. Headings. The section headings appearing in these TOS or any Customer Agreement are inserted only as a matter of convenience and in no way define, limit, construe or describe the scope or extent of such section or in any way affect such section.

- 10. Independent Contractors. Neither party nor their employees, consultants, contractors or agents are agents, employees or joint ventures of the other party, and they do not have any authority to bind the other party by contract or otherwise to any obligation. Each party shall ensure that the foregoing persons shall not represent to the contrary, either expressly, implicitly, by appearance or otherwise.
- 11. Non-Disparagement; Publicity. In consideration of the Services and payments received therefor, neither party will disparage the other party or the other party’s trademarks, websites, products or services, or display any such items in a derogatory or negative manner on any website or in any public forum or press release. Unless otherwise stated herein, You shall not issue a press release or otherwise advertise, make a public statement or disclose to any third-party information pertaining to the parties’ relationship, the existence or terms of these TOS or any Customer Agreement, the Services and any underlying transactions between SwervePay and You, or referring to the other party in relation to Services without the SwervePay’s prior written approval.
- 12. Costs, Legal Expenses. Except as expressly stated in a Customer Agreement, each party shall be solely responsible for the costs and expenses of performing its obligations hereunder. In the event of a dispute arising from or related to the Services, these TOS or a Customer Agreement, which results in litigation or any other proceeding (“Litigation”) the prevailing party in such Litigation shall recover from the other its costs, expenses and reasonable attorney’s fees in connection with such litigation or other proceeding.
