10. not transfer or attempt to transfer Client's financial liability by asking or requiring Payer to waive their dispute rights; and
11. not submit transactions on behalf of another entity that the Card Organizations would consider a sub-ISO, Payment Service Provider (PSP), Payment Facilitator, or other third party payment provider.
12. Direct Processing Agreement. In accordance with the Operating Rules, if Client anticipates processing or does process more than $1,000,000 payment card transactions in any 12-month period, SwervePay may need to have Client execute a direct agreement with SwervePay's payment processor, in the form provided by SwervePay's processor. Client acknowledges that the thresholds set forth in this Section are subject to change and additional thresholds may be adopted under the Operating Rules. If a direct agreement is deemed required and Client fails to enter into it upon request or the payment processor terminates the direct agreement at any time, SwervePay may cease providing the Offerings and terminate this Agreement by providing written notice to Client.
13. Deposit Account. As part of the Enrollment Form and for any subsequent account Client opens related to the Payment Processing Services, Client shall complete an Authorization for Direct Deposits form and for the duration of this Agreement, Client shall maintain one or more commercial checking account(s) to facilitate payment of payment transactions and automated clearing house network ("ACH") transfers between SwervePay and Client ("Deposit Account"). Client will notify SwervePay in writing any time there is a change in the Deposit Account information that will materially affect the ability of SwervePay to make ACH transactions to Client's Deposit Account. Client acknowledges that SwervePay is not responsible for any failure of Client to receive an ACH transfer that is caused by Client failing to maintain the Deposit Account or accurate Deposit Account information with SwervePay. Client shall maintain sufficient funds in the Deposit Account to accommodate the payment of any Fees, Chargeback liabilities, charges associated with the purchase of Terminals, or payment of any assessments from the Card Organizations.

14. Distribution of Funds to Client. Within two business days of a deposit of the funds from a payment by a Payer of an obligation due to Client into the Settlement Bank Account ("Funds"), SwervePay will have the Member Bank transmit via an ACH transfer to Client's Deposit Account the Funds owed to Client provided that SwervePay receives a valid authorization code from the applicable Card Organization. Client further acknowledges that availability of the Funds for use by Client is subject to the control of the banking institutions and SwervePay is not responsible for any delay caused by the banking institutions. "Settlement Bank Account" means a bank or escrow account maintained by SwervePay with the Member Bank for receipt of payments made through the Payment Processing Services. "Member Bank" means a financial institution that provides credit card processing services for SwervePay under this Agreement. Each transaction will be considered complete when SwervePay has received the Funds and when such Funds have been accepted by Client's designated bank or financial institution.
15. Chargebacks. If a charge or transaction is reversed or returned for any reason to Client's sub-merchant account ("Chargeback"), Client will pay to SwervePay any administrative fees set forth in the Enrollment Form that reflects SwervePay's involvement in the Chargeback resolution process. For any Chargeback, Client will also pay all credit card, debit card, bank, and ACH transaction fees, fines or penalties and refund all Funds transferred to Client's Deposit Account corresponding to the Chargeback amount. Client will be notified of the Chargeback and of the amount due. If Client has a reason to dispute the Chargeback, Client has to dispute the Chargeback based on the date provided in the Chargeback notice. SwervePay has no independent obligation to investigate, dispute, or attempt to obtain reversal or adjustment of any Chargeback. SwervePay may deduct the amount of any Chargeback and any associated fees, fines, or penalties assessed by each processor and bank from: (a) Client's sub-merchant account, (b) Client's Reserve Account (if applicable), (c) Client's Deposit Account; or (d) any amounts due to Client. If Client is incurring an excessive number of Chargebacks, SwervePay may increase the Fees, holdback settlement of funds, establish or increase the fund requirements for a Reserve Account, or terminate this Agreement by providing written notice to Client. Client is responsible for monitoring Client's monthly Chargeback percentage and developing Chargeback reduction programs as required by the Card Organizations.
16. Correcting Payment Errors. Upon SwervePay providing written notice to Client, Client will also reimburse SwervePay for any misdirected deposits, duplicate deposits, or inadvertent overpayments into Client's Deposit Account ("Incorrect Deposit"). Client authorizes SwervePay, SwervePay's processor, or Member Bank to debit the Deposit Account or Reserve Account for any Incorrect Deposits. This debit authorization survives the termination of this Agreement until SwervePay validates that there are no Incorrect Deposits that need to be addressed.
17. Statements and Client Review. SwervePay shall make available to Client statements and transaction reports reflecting Client's sub-merchant account activity ("Statements"). Client acknowledges that Client has 90 days from when the Statements are made available to Client to review the Statements for accuracy. Subject to Client providing SwervePay with written notice of any dispute or discrepancy related to the Statement within that 90 day period, Client may reasonably dispute a Statement. Upon receipt of the dispute by SwervePay, SwervePay will review the disputed Statement and the parties will work together in good faith to resolve the dispute. If it is determined that SwervePay owes any additional amounts to Client, Client will disperse that amount in accordance with Section 8 of this Exhibit. Client agrees that SwervePay will not be liable to Client or have any obligation to resolve any discrepancy in any Statement that Client does not dispute in accordance with this Section.
18. Reserve Account. Upon notice to Client, SwervePay may elect or be required by SwervePay's payment processor to establish a non-segregated account at a financial institution to ensure payment of all of Client's payment or Fee obligations under this Agreement ("Reserve Account"). Client hereby permits SwervePay to fund the Reserve Account through (a) debiting the Deposit Account; (b) withholding Funds and depositing those funds in the Reserve Account; or (c) invoice Client and Client will pay such invoice within 30 days of the date of the invoice. SwervePay may continue to hold the Reserve Account with any amounts in it for up to one year after the termination of this Agreement. Client acknowledges that Client will not receive any interest on the amounts in the Reserve Account and has no right to access the amounts in the Reserve Account until SwervePay closes the Reserve Account and provides all amounts (if any) in the Reserve Account to Client. SwervePay will close the Reserve Account and release any amounts to Client once Client satisfies all payment obligations under this Agreement.

19. Investigations and Sharing of Information. If SwervePay reasonably believes that a transaction is in violation of this Agreement, is illegal or otherwise may cause harm to SwervePay, Client, a Payer, or SwervePay's processor, SwervePay may choose not to authorize, process, or settle the transaction. If SwervePay discovers any such transaction or any other unusual or unexpected transaction activity on Client's sub-merchant account, Client authorizes SwervePay to hold Funds while SwervePay conducts an investigation into the transaction activity. As part of such investigation and upon SwervePay's request, Client will provide all documentation requested to support or otherwise validate any transaction being investigated. As part of any SwervePay investigation or if required by law, court order, or a request from law enforcement or a governmental entity, SwervePay may withhold and defer the distribution to Client of any Funds until such investigation concludes, or such legal or governmental requirement no longer applies. If SwervePay reasonably believes that the Payment Processing Services have been used for an illegal, unauthorized or criminal purpose, Client expressly authorizes SwervePay to share information about Client, Client's sub-merchant account, or Client's transactions with Client's banks, Client's financial institutions, SwervePay's processor, the Card Organizations, SwervePay's advisors, and with law enforcement and governmental entities. If SwervePay reasonably believes in good faith that that Client needs to be reported under the Operating Rules, Client acknowledges that SwervePay may report Client to the MATCH list (Member Alert to Control High-Risk), the Card Organizations, any applicable governmental agency or law enforcement agency.
20. Honoring Cards. Client has the responsibility to validate the identity of the Payer and the Payer's payment card information. If Client determines a payment card is expired or that the account number is listed on a current Electronic Warning Bulletin file or the account number does not match the card's magnetic strip or chip, Client will not honor the payment card or the transaction. Client shall ensure that the Payer understands Client is responsible for the transaction and all the details related to the charges that will be processed on Client's payment card. Client shall maintain return and refund policies that comply with the Operating Rules and disclose to Payers any refund or return policies Client has. Unless a Payer expressly declines a written receipt, Client shall make a receipt available to a Payer for any transaction, whether in writing or via electronic means.
21. Client's Security Obligations. Client shall keep all payment card, account information and personal information of a Payer ("Payer Information") confidential and not disclose such information to a third party except as permitted under the Laws and Standards. Client shall keep Payer Information in a secure manner to prevent disclosure to unauthorized parties and in a manner that complies with all the Laws and Standards. Upon SwervePay's request, Client will provide proof to SwervePay of Client's compliance with the Laws and Standards. Client will only use the Payer Information for obtaining payment and not use or disclose the Payer Information for marketing purposes or any other unauthorized use without express consent of the Payer. Client shall immediately notify SwervePay if: (a) Client has reason to believe that Client's sub-merchant account is no longer secure or being used for unauthorized purposes; or (b) Client discovers or has reason to suspect that a data breach has occurred. In any such event, Client will fully cooperate, at its expense, with all remediation efforts, forensic examination, and mitigation procedures required under the Laws and Standards or reasonably requested by SwervePay, the Card Organizations, SwervePay's processor, and any of the parties' banks or financial institutions. Client acknowledges that any failure to comply with the Laws and Standards or the occurrence of any data breach suffered by Client may result in Client being assessed penalties or fines by the Card Organization and Client shall pay those penalties and fines.
22. Third Parties. To the extent Client uses any third party to process, store, receive, transmit, or otherwise have access to Payer Information, Client assumes full responsibility and liability for such third party's compliance with this Agreement and the Laws and Standards. SwervePay is not liable for the acts or omissions of such third parties. Client further agrees to notify SwervePay of the identity of all such third parties if those third parties relate to the Payment Processing Services and to ensure that such third parties are properly registered, if required to be so, with the Card Organizations. SwervePay may require any such third parties to undergo testing, approval, and certification by SwervePay or SwervePay's bank or processor. SwervePay may, at any time, also terminate such third parties' access to or ability to integrate with SwervePay. For the sake of clarity, SwervePay's affiliates or subcontractors are not considered a third party under this Section.
23. Termination and Suspension Rights. In addition to the termination rights set forth in the Terms and Conditions, SwervePay may suspend providing the Payment Processing Services to Client upon providing notice to Client, if Client: (a) has violated these Sub-Merchant Payment Processing Terms or any of the Laws and Standards; (b) poses an unacceptable credit or fraud risk, as determined by SwervePay, SwervePay’s processor, or the Card Organizations; (c) becomes subject to any investigation or enforcement action by law enforcement or a governmental entity; (d) falls outside of SwervePay’s credit policies; (e) provides any false, incomplete, inaccurate, or misleading information or otherwise engages in fraudulent or illegal conduct; or (f) becomes part of the MATCH list or Terminated Client File maintained by MasterCard. If SwervePay suspends providing the Payment Processing Services for any of the foregoing reasons and the circumstances do not change after 30 days, SwervePay may terminate this Agreement by providing written notice to Client. Upon suspension of the Payment Processing Services or termination of this Agreement for any reason, (i) all pending transactions will be cancelled; (ii) Client shall pay all Fees and any other amounts owed to SwervePay that were accrued prior to the termination; and (iii) Client will remain liable for any and all Chargebacks, credits, adjustments, penalties, fines, costs, and all other amounts that become due prior to or after the suspension or termination. As part of the suspension or termination of the Agreement, SwervePay may establish and maintain a Reserve Account in accordance with Section 14 of this Exhibit. If Client is subject to an investigation or enforcement action at the time Client seeks to close a Client sub-merchant account, SwervePay may retain the Funds in the sub-merchant account or a Reserve Account until the investigation or action is completed.
